SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

★ How to fool the fuss-budget money early in the week, too ★ A list of foods that save you ★ A timely story with a moral

How to feed your family its vitamins

The above heading is the subject of lesson No. 2 of the much-talked-of "Kitchen Course in Nutrition"—a 10-lesson course-by-mail designed to help you plan meals that are nutritious as well as delicious. 25c is the full price for the entire course. To start, just send your name and address and 25c to Julia Lee Wright, Box. 660-CC, Oakland, California.

Safeway prices are not only low on week-ends, Safeway prices are now low early in the week!

Have you a fuss-budget on food in your house?

Here's how to fool him!

In which the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau presents four sensible tips and two delectable recipes

1. Give the fussy eater more foods rich in B vitamins, because these vitamins promote healthy appetite, good digestion, and general well-being.

2. Disguise foods that are disliked. For example, serve milk in custards, milk shakes, cream soups, and other milk-rich dishes, or instead serve cheese.

3. Combine disliked foods with others that are well-liked. For example, mash turnips with potatoes, season with milk or cream and butter, and the turnips can hardly be tasted.

4. Don't talk too much about nutrition, or tell the fuss-budget how good a certain food is, or urge him to eat, or you'll surely invite rebellion. Just make the food as attractive and good-tasting as you can, and watch what happens.

This recipe for Southern Spoon Bread makes it easy to include milk, eggs, and cereals in his diet and still make him beam with contentment.

SOUTHERN SPOON BREAD

2½ cups milk
¾ cup corn meal
1 tsp. salt
3 eggs
3 tbsps. melted butter
1½ tsps. baking powder

Heat milk in double boiler. Add corn meal and salt gradually, stirring constantly. Cover and cook 15 to 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cool slightly. Beat egg yolks; add with melted butter to corn meal mixture. Beat egg whites until foamy; then add baking powder and beat until stiff. Fold into corn meal mixture. Pour into deep well-greased 2-qt. casserole or baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 45 minutes, or until set. Serve from baking dish with melted butter. Serves 6.

This recipe for Vegetable Custard Ring makes it easy to include more milk, eggs, and vegetables in his diet.

VEGETABLE CUSTARD RING

2 eggs
1½ cups evaporated milk
2½ cups coarsely chopped vegetables
1¼ tsps. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
1 tbsp. minced onion
1 tbsp. lemon juice
1 tbsp. melted butter

Beat eggs slightly; add milk, vegetables, seasonings, and butter. Line bottom of well-greased 1½-qt. ring mold with waxed paper. Carefully pour in custard mixture. Bake in pan of hot water in moderate oven (350° F.) about 45 minutes, or until silver knife inserted in center comes out clean. Unmold to serve; fill center with creamed fish, meat, or vegetables. Serves 8. (NOTE: Vegetables may be grated raw carrots, diced plain or mixed vegetables like peas, asparagus, etc.)

WANT TO KNOW WHAT NANCY LEARNED?

WELL, I DON'T GET IT NANCY. THE KIRKS DON'T WASTE HALF THEIR SATURDAYS IN CROWDED GROCERY STORES. DON'T THEY EAT ON WEEKENDS? ETC, ETC, ETC.
OH, I KNOW SHOPPING ON WEEKDAYS IS MUCH BETTER, BUT I HAVE TO WATCH MY PENNIES. I HAVE TO WAITH FOR SATURDAY SPECIALS.
LOOK DARLING, I HAVE A BUDGET TOO, BUT WHERE I SHOP SATURDAY PRICES ARE GOOD EARLY IN THE WEEK.
DO YOU MEAN TO SAY THESE AREN'T SPECIAL LOW PRICES?
THEY'RE SPECIALLY LOW PRICES ALL RIGHT, BUT SAFEWAY PRICES ARE LOW LIKE THIS EARLY IN THE WEEK, TOO.
. . . . SO NOW I GET MY BIG ORDER AT SAFEWAY DURING THE EARLY PART OF THE WEEK AND I SAVE MONEY AS WELL AS TIME AND TROUBLE.
AND ONE THING MORE, DEAR. IT SHOULD BE VERY SAVING ON MY DISPOSITION!

Why don't you get your "big" order on a weekday too?

Not only will you have more time to play on week-ends, but you'll be able to shop more leisurely if you get your big grocery order on a weekday. Safeway's specially low advertised prices, you know, are now good early in the week.

H. H. Smith Letter Of Thanks

August 26, 1942

Hugh H. Smith, candidate for County Executive in Tuesday's primary election, today expressed his deep gratitude to his thousands of friends and supporters in San Mateo county for their generous response to his candidacy.

"The people of the county have expressed themselves as to their preference for county executive." Smith declared, "but despite the fact I was not their choice, I am deeply grateful for the fine way in which my candidacy was received.

"When I retired as chairman of the Board of Supervisors two years ago it was with the definite intention of devoting my full time to my family and my private life. However, so many of my friends were so insistent that I seek the office of County Executive, I considered it my patriotic and civic duty to respond. I waged a sincere campaign, and did everything within my power to acquaint the people with what I believed to be the important issues.

"Now that the battle is over, and the decision made I have only the friendliest feeling in regard to the outcome. In fact so far as I personally and my family are concerned it is the finest thing that has happened in a long time. Now I can really spend what I consider the leisure years of my life doing the many things my wife and I have planned to do for so long.

"It was my intention, had I won this election, to put into the county government the spirit of cooperation and coordination of effort that has brought me what measure of success I can now enjoy. It would have been real joy for me to have been able to demonstrate to the people of the county just what these policies could accomplish in our county government.

"To the people of this county I am grateful indeed for the long service you gave me the opportunity to render in years gone by, and it is with a feeling of deep pride in this service that I turn again to private life. To the County executive in his new term, I wish a full measure of success"

'Saboteur' Story Has Odd History

Peter Viertel, just turned 21, is being hailed by the Hollywood picture producers as the writing "discovery" of the decade because of his work on the screen play for Universal's "Saboteur," Alfred Hitchcock-directed picture now at the Daly City theatre. The youth, who only a year ago was an office boy in the David O. Selznick producing organization, shares the "Saboteur" authorship credit with Joan Harrison and famous Dorothy Parker.

The story behind the development of "Saboteur," which costars Priscilla Lane and Robert Cummings, and which is presented by Frank Lloyd Productions, Inc., is one of the more interesting contemporary tales of the motion picture industry.

Only a few months ago, Selznick decided he wanted a vehicle suitable for a Hitchcock directorial assignment—something built around an average American youth whose friends had suddenly turned against him. The Hitchcock imagination was put at work, and a few days later the hefty, British-born pilot handed Selznick a rough synopsis.

Joan Harrison, former secretary to Hitchcock and now a full-fledged silversheet writer, was hired to do a "treatment" of the Hitchcock idea. Viertel then was summoned to pen the script.

When Frank Lloyd Productions negotiated the loan of Hitchcock from Selznick, to whom he is under contract, they needed a typical Hitchcock yarn. Selznick sold them the Hitchcock-Harrison-Viertel "brain-child."

I wish to take this opportunity to thank my friends of San Mateo County for the overwhelming vote given me Tuesday, August 25.

I also wish to thank my opponents for conducting such a clean, dignified campaign and I am glad to be able to call you friends.
